ORDER REVOKING CPG

I. INTRODUCTION

On July 18, 1996, the Vermont Public Service Board ("Board") granted D.D.D. Calling, Inc. ("the Company" or "D.D.D."), a Certificate of Public Good, CPG No. 264, to provide telecommunications services in Vermont. On December 28, 2010, D.D.D. filed a letter with the Board stating that it does not conduct business in Vermont. Consequently, it stated, it wished to relinquish its authority to offer telecommunications services in Vermont.

On February 15, 2011, the Vermont Department of Public Service ("DPS") filed a letter with the Board stating that there are no pending complaints against the Company and that it has no objection to the Company's request for revocation of its Certificate of Public Good.

The Board finds the reasons articulated by the Company in support of its request to be convincing. This finding, together with the fact that no opposition to the Company's filing has been registered with the Board and no party has requested a hearing, leads us to conclude that the Company's CPG should be revoked without a hearing.
